

No Duty to Rescue or Protect

Practice Exam Question

Two Steps to Writing an Exam Answer

1. Take thorough notes, exploring the problem from all angles.
2. Extract information from those notes to build a thoughtful, logical, persuasive argument.

What should I include in my exam answer?

What should I keep out?

Include information that will help the reader arrive at your conclusion.

No Duty to Rescue or Protect

Utilitarian

In Between?

Libertarian

Exceptions

Special relationship

Undertakings

Non-negligent injury

Non-negligent creation of risk

Statutes

Harper v. Herman

&

Farwell v. Keaton